Paying Kindness Forward

November is a month to be thankful and practice kindness. Kindness is contagious and it's easy to make someone's day by showing him/her kindness. Parents should teach young children about kindness and it will stay with them through adulthood. Once they learn how good it is they will start doing it more frequently. We can help this generation reverse the growing animosity in the world today.

1. Treat people the way you want to be treated
2. If you can't say something nice don't say anything at all.
3. Kind words and a smile
4. Good manner: please and thank you
