February is Black History Month and Black history is American history. Haines staff and students observe Black History Month in February and it gives everyone a chance to learn about history intentionally.

We will have weekly performances by outside vendors to facilitate learning.

If you are available, please come to Haines on 2/8, 2/14, 2/21 at 8:15 AM for morning performances that highlight African Americans in today’s culture through dance and music.

On 2/28, our students’ work will be displayed in our Black History Expo on the first floor.

Chinese New Year—Year of the Pig falls on Tuesday, February 5th this year. There's no set date for Chinese New Year. The reason the new year falls at this time is because it marks the start of the lunar new year, which is the start of a new moon.

The Chinese New Year Performances will be held at Haines on Tuesday, February 5, 2019 at 8:15 AM and 1:15 PM.

Don’t forget 100th day is on Friday, February 15th. Come to school dressed like an 100 year old person.
