February News

Reading

We are using our knowledge of letters and sounds to blend and read words. Students are working on mastering sight words. We are continuing to focus on key details from a story, such as problem and solution. We are making predictions while reading and focusing on higher level questioning. We will be starting reading buddies with the third graders! Room 117 is working with Mrs. Bruno's class and room 119 is working with Ms. Liu's class.

Writing

We are continuing to work on informational ("All About") writing. We are working on writing complete sentences with capitalization and correct punctuation and spelling sight words correctly. We will begin our opinion writing unit this month too. Students are using rhyme and word families to spell unknown words.

Math

We are continuing working on addition and subtraction facts and word problems. We will also be celebrating the 100th day of school!

Reminders

Please check your child's folder daily. There are always important communications going out with the homework. Also, please make sure you are completing monthly reading logs and submitting them by the first of the next month. On Valentine's Day, we will have some fun activities to do in the class. Students are welcome to bring in treats (must be peanut free) to share with the whole class (119- 20 students; 117- 23 students).

Highlights for the month: Students made good progress towards our middle of the year goals!
