

MARCH

Reading /Language Arts

Room 201 We are going to wrap up the novel, “In the Year of Boar and Jackie Robinson” with a variety of culminating projects and activities. Students will be able to find evidence and explain their choice of evidence.

Room 202 We are wrapped up with Sign of The Beaver and will begin In the Year of the Boar and Jackie Robinson with using a variety of skills and annotations. We will also incorporate Storyworks to mentor our writing.

Room 313 Scholastic News: Are Aliens Real? The Boy Who Started the American Revolution; Novel study Stuart Little.

Math

Topic 15: Geometric measurements: understand concepts of angles and angle measurements

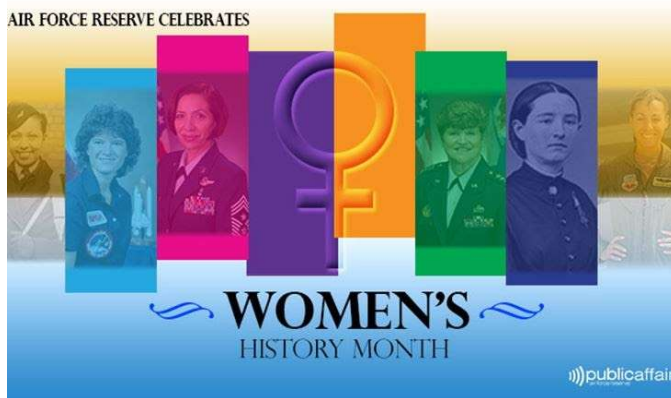

Topic 16 Lines, Angles and Shapes

Topic 10 and 11 Extend Multiplication Concepts to Fractions and Represent and Interpret Data on Line Plots

Science

Room 201, 202: Students will apply their knowledge of circuitry and electromagnetism to build a telegraph and invent codes to send messages to each other.

Room 313: Mystery Science lessons: continue Seeing Sound Unit

4th Grade Team

Room 201 Ms. Perthel: (jmoy@cps.edu) Students participated in the opera residency program. They enjoyed the backstage field trip to the Lyric Opera House. They enjoyed learning about African American politicians.

Room 202 Ms. Set: (ctse2@cps.edu) Looking back at February we had many opportunities to learn and celebrate African American History with Music assemblies on Mondays and Social Studies politician projects. As well, we read a Nonfiction article about Matthew Henson and wrote a Descriptive writing about another African American forgotten hero. We finally celebrated the end of the month with a Black History Expo.

Room 313 Mr. Lee: (ilee@cps.edu) Students continue learning computer coding to create a project using music and dance. They also enjoy the Lyric Opera singing in Mandarin. They used technology to make posters online to celebrate Black History Month.

Social Science

Room 201, 202:

Chapter 7 Learn what Stephan Douglas did and why he was known as “Little Giant”; Learn about the Missouri Compromise of 1850 and why Henry Clay passed that law; Learn how the Fugitive Slave Law was passed and how it relates to the Missouri Compromise of 1850; Learn about the 7 city debate of Lincoln and Douglas.

Room 313 Introduction American Government, students will learn a brief history of how the United States expanded its territory to the west.

Happy Birthday:

Room 201: 18th Noah Warren

Room 202: 19th Calvin Lin & Yayu Zheng

Room 313: 5th Huijia Chen

STARS OF THE WEEK:

March 2:

Room 201 - Noah Warren

Room 202 - Jala Bell

Room 313 - Anthony Wu Feng

March 9:

Room 201 - Mehkii White

Room 202 - Rainbow Lin

Room 313 - Angel Wu

March 16:

Room 201 - Vivian Wu

Room 202 - Alex Ruan

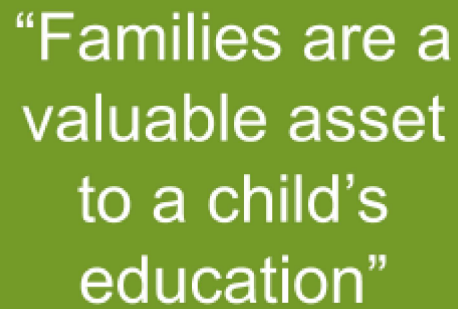

Room 313 - Weilin Wu

March 23:

Room 201 - Xiao Yong Wu

Room 202 - Chutong Feng

Room 313 - Yingyi Zhen

“Families are a valuable asset to a child’s education”

SEL topic: Honesty

Important Dates:

March 8 Daylight Saving Time Begins

March 11 to March 19 Illinois Assessment of Readiness

March 27 Career Day