

JCH Mrs. Dai Lee
WILDCATS Grade 1
 Room 210

Week of Dec. 14 - Dec. 18

ELA

We will be taking a test on Units 3-4 on Monday. We will then introduce Unit 5 which will continue to work on decoding words with -ed sounds and now -ing.

Math

In math, we will be using strategies we know to solve a problem of the day each day this week. We will be using pictures, words, and numbers to show our work.

Science/SS

For Science, we will be discussing why snow is white and if there really is a pole in the North and South Pole. In Social Studies, we will be reading about holiday needs and wants and talking about the differences between them.

Reminders

Dec. 18 Progress Reports will be sent out

Dec. 21-Jan. 1 Winter Break

See you back on Mon., Jan. 4!
