Welcome
Back to School!

Week of 9/21/20

P.E.

We are finding our rhythm in P.E.! Almost all of the students are logging in, participating, turning in their weekly Google Form Quiz, and having fun. 6th-8th will work on muscular exercises, 3rd-5th on underhand tossing, and K-2nd on balance and movement.

Library

This week K-3 began reading the Monarch books, which we will continue until about February. Last week was Douglas, You're a Genius. 4th Grade and up has been practicing accessing ebooks. It can be difficult, but I want to make sure your children still have access to books! Mrs.

Art

Things are in full swing in the virtual Art Room! Great job everyone! I am proud of you! Remote learning folder in GDrive has your GC link. Kindergarten students - an invite to join the SeeSaw art room was sent in Dojo, please let me know if you have any questions! Other grades will be invited soon. Keep up the great work!!

Technology

ALL ABOUT me, everyone!

It is amazing how students used their interest inventory to create an acrostic poem (3-5) and a flyer (6-8) about themselves!  Desktop publishing. Let's try to animate sometime with Google Slides next.  Presentation.

Music

We are off and running! (to a steady beat, of course!) Week 2 was filled with Solfege competitions, folk songs, composing drum beats, and much more! Don't forget to check your Google Classroom for all assignments and lesson materials!
