Math -
Agostinelli

This week, we will apply our comparing, estimation, and equivalence experiences with fractions to find common denominators to help us add and subtract questions. Students should spend their asynchronous time working on their Weekly Math Practice Logs so that their 4th grade fraction knowledge can be reinforced and expanded. <http://bit.ly/MsAgostinelli>

315 Math meets DAILY from 9:15AM

Science/SS - Yau

Science: Patterns of Earth and Sky Unit:

Students are introduced to a new challenge as food scientists: create an ideal salad dressing - one with good flavor and texture (meaning no sediments remain on the bottom, and the mixture doesn't separate into layers). As the class debriefs its findings, students learn what it means for a substance to dissolve. 315 Science Meets DAILY from 11:00 AM but on Wednesdays we meet at 10:00AM

Social Science:

Students will work on Studies Weekly: Week 16 - Bill of Rights. They will learn about the first five amendments.

315 Science meets DAILY from 11:30AM but on Wednesdays we meet at 10:00AM
