Welcome
Back to SCHOOL

Week of Sept. 7- Sept. 11, 2020

ELA - Yau

Our 1st novel is called, Freak the Mighty. Ms. Dowling, librarian, will show you how to access the online book.

We will learn about the 6+1 Traits of writing. The first trait named "Idea."

This week we will explore our hopes and dreams for this school year.

315 ELA meets DAILY from 8:00 AM - 9:00 AM

1 2
3 4

Math - Agostinelli

Our first Unit will involve problem solving and showing what we know. You will pick up a resource pack next week with your textbooks. In the meantime, please have paper and pencil nearby!

315 Math meets DAILY from 9:00-10:00

Science/SS - Yau

Science: Patterns of Earth and Sky Unit: Students take on the role of astronomers who are helping a team of archaeologists explain the images on a recently discovered, 1,000 year old artifact with a missing piece.
315 Science Meets DAILY from 11:00 - 11:30 AM

Social Science: Students will be reviewing the government organization of the United States. It is the people who give authority to be governed. Being an actively engaged citizen is a responsibility in a democratic republic.

315 Science meets DAILY from 1:45-2:00 PM

- Ya Lin Chen (Sept. 26)

Star of the Week

Haines Students ROCK!

We are all stars this week as we get logged in, up and running, and ready for a wonderful year of learning! It will take patience, understanding, and effort from all of us, but I know we can do it! Remember: Mindset Matters at Haines!

Let's do this, Wildcats!
