Week of Sept. 28- Oct. 2, 2020

 ELA - Yau

Next we will be reading the novel, Freak the Mighty by Rodman Philbrick. In preparation to read the book, we will work on some pre-reading activities to provide some background knowledge. We will go over what is realistic fiction?, Morquio Syndrome, and The Legend of King Arthur.

315 Reading meets DAILY from 8:00AM-9:00AM

1 2
3 4

Math - Agostinelli

Students rocked Topic 1: Place Value and Decimals! Using that knowledge, we will begin adding and subtracting decimals to the hundredths place. Puzzles and challenges will help us make sense of how these operations work.

315 Math meets DAILY from 9:15AM-10:00AM

Science/SS - Yau

Science: Patterns of Earth and Sky Unit:

Students review key concepts and are introduced to the writing genre of scientific explanations. They will examine a sample explanation through the lens of the explanation rubric. Then students write their own explanation to answer the question: Why don't we see a lot of stars during the daytime?

315 Science Meets DAILY from 11:00 AM - 11:30 AM

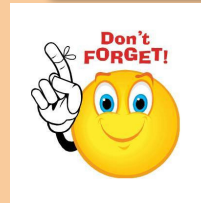

Social Science:

This week, students will learn about the 5 themes of geography: location, place, human-environment interaction, movement, and region.
