

Mr. Lambert
Room 217

Week of September 21-28

Introduction

All students will be working on their individual goals in each subject.

Reminders

Email: tlambert3@cps.edu

September 8: First Day of School!

September 14: Meet the teachers night 5:00 pm

ELA

We will continue working on character analysis and begin working on point of view. Students will also work on their individual goals.

Social Studies

Students will be working on US geography including being able to retell facts, locate places on a map, and work on their individual goals

MATH

We will continue working on multiples, factors, and prime numbers. Students will also be working on their individual goals

Science

Students will be working on patterns of earth and sky.

